Hon. Patrick A. Collins, Mayor:

Sir, — In compliance with section 24 of chapter 3 of the Revised Ordinances, the Board of Election Commissioners respectfully submits its annual report for the year 1903.

Number of Voters.

At the city election in December, 1902, the number of male voters on the list was 111,817. The number of such voters on the list published by the Board in August, 1903, was 95,894. From that time to the close of registration for the city election there were added the names of 15,435 male voters. In revising the voting list, after the publication of the voting list in August, 686 names were dropped on account of death, removal or other causes. The number of male voters on the final list sent to the polls on the day of the city election in 1903 was 110,643, a decrease of 1,174 from the list of the preceding year.

In 1902 there were 18,445 female voters registered for the city election. In 1903 their number was 18,515, an increase of 70. The total decrease of male and female voters from the preceding year was 1,104.

New Precincts.

According to the registration of the last city election, Precinct 1 of Ward 22 contained 1,010 male voters. Under section 161 of chapter 11 of the Revised Laws, the Aldermen must, on or before the first Monday in July of the current year, divide this precinct or make a new division of the ward so that no precinct shall contain more than one thousand male voters.

Legislation of 1903.

Chapter 279 of the Acts of 1903 transferred from the Board of Assessors to the Board of Police the duty of making the lists of male persons residing in Boston on the first day of May, and lists of women voters. From such lists of male persons the Election Commissioners prepare the annual register of qualified voters in Boston. A person whose name has been omitted from the list of the Board of Police must obtain from said Board, before his name can be placed upon the voting list, a certificate of residence. By said chapter the time of obtaining such certificate was shortened from the first day of October to the first day of September of each year.

Chapter 368 of the Acts of 1903 provided for the appointment of a state Board of Voting Machine Examiners, one of whom shall be an expert in patent law, and two shall be mechanical experts. They exercise the duties relative to the examination of voting machines, ballot boxes and counting apparatus, formerly imposed by law upon the Secretary of the Commonwealth, the Treasurer and Receiver-General, and Auditor of Accounts.

Chapter 425 of the Acts of 1903 provided for the direct nomination of candidates for Councillor in districts made up only of Suffolk senatorial districts. This embraces now only the Fourth Councillor district.

Chapter 426 of the Acts of 1903 provided for the nomination and election of Aldermen in Boston, giving each political party the right to nominate eight candidates at the primary, and the people the right to vote for thirteen candidates at the election. Under this act the thirteen candidates receiving at the election the thirteen highest number of votes are elected.

Chapter 450 of the Acts of 1903 provided for the direct nomination of candidates for Representatives in Congress in the Ninth, Tenth and Eleventh Congressional districts.

Chapter 453 of the Acts of 1903 provided for the returns of caucuses of political parties at which are made any direct nominations for a district comprising more than one ward or town.

Chapter 454 of the Acts of 1903 provided for joint caucuses or primaries of all political or municipal parties.

Chapter 474 of the Acts of 1903 was an omnibus act making various changes and corrections in the laws of elections, the most important of which are as follows, to wit: making it the duty of the presiding officer to open caucuses at the hour appointed therefor in the notice thereof; striking out the provisions of section 108 of chapter 11 of the Revised Laws that "no nomination paper offered for filing shall be received or be valid unless the written acceptance of every candidate thereby nominated shall be filed therewith," and inserting in place thereof the words "no nomination paper shall be valid with respect to any candidate whose written acceptance is not thereon"; and that a recount petition may be sworn to by one of the signers in place of all.

NEW PRIMARY LAW.

Chapter 454 of the Acts of 1903, known as the primary act, is a distinct advance in the methods of conducting primaries. Formerly, in Boston, primaries, then known as caucuses, were held by each party at different times in one place in each ward and conducted by unpaid caucus officers elected at the caucuses of the preceding year. Such caucus officers were not under the supervision nor responsible to the Election Commissioners for the proper conduct of such caucuses. It was generally believed that the voters of one party at different periods voted in the caucus of another party. To reform the methods of conducting caucuses this act was passed. Its main features comprised: First, holding primaries of all political parties at the same time and place; second, holding such primaries in each precinct of the city instead of in one place in each ward as previously; third, extension of the service of election officers, appointed by the Board, to service at primaries; fourth, party enrolment of voters. All the safeguards around the election now surround the primary. Under the old system it was the duty of the Election Board simply to print the ballots. It had no control over the conduct of caucus officers or the conduct of caucuses. Now its control over primary officers and the conduct of primaries is as extensive as over election officers and the conduct of elections. Paid election officers, appointed by the Board and removable for cause receive, count and canvass the votes. Great improvement over the old system was noted in the counting, canvassing and return of such votes. The arrangements for holding these primaries at the same time in 194 different places necessitated the printing for each primary of 131,000 ballots, containing the names of thousands of candidates. Such ballots, distributed among three different political parties, were printed upon paper of a different color. This great change in the conduct of caucuses in Boston, amounting almost to a revolution in the methods previously prevailing, imposed a task of unusual magnitude upon this department. In the opinion of the Board the working of this innovation was in the main satisfactory. Whatever the criticism as to the merits of this new departure the Board is not aware that any adverse criticism has been passed upon its administration of the law.

VOTING FOR WARD COMMITTEES.

At the present time, under the provisions of section 118 of chapter 11 of the Revised Laws, names of candidates for ward or town committees and for delegates to conventions must be arranged in groups in the order in which they are filed. Under the provisions of section 119 of the same chapter a cross in the circle at the head of an entire group of candidates for delegates to a convention counts for a vote for each candidate therein. In our opinion, the latter section should be so amended that a cross in the circle at the head of an entire group of candidates for ward or town committee should also count as a vote for each candidate therein. This will simplify to some degree the counting of the city primary ballots. As this is an extension of the principle now in vogue in reference to voting for delegates to conventions, and will accomplish the shortening of the counting of the city primary ballots, we recommend its adoption.

ILLEGAL REGISTRATION.

During the year there were 39 complaints of illegal registration under the statute. On 2 such complaints, sufficient evidence not appearing, no summonses were issued. On 25 such complaints, the complainant withdrew the same after filing; 6 complaints were dismissed; 4 were sustained. On the 2 remaining, registration was corrected in one instance by changing the place of residence of the voter, and, on the other by changing the place of birth of the voter as it appeared on the register.

RECOUNTS.

Recounts were conducted in Faneuil Hall and Wesleyan Hall, the latter hall being used for the recount of the state election and part of the city primary, owing to the fact that Faneuil Hall was occupied by the American Federation of Labor for its annual convention.

As in 1902, the returns of the election officers were changed in but few instances. Such recounts were a tremendous task and involved great expense. While there were various recounts of votes, embracing a ward or several wards, in which a few changes were made, the hardest task was that of recounting the votes for the nomination and election of aldermen, nominated and elected as such candidates were in the 194 precincts of the city.

The aldermanic recounts resulted in no change whatever of candidates nominated or elected. This shows that the counting of the election officers was on the whole very accurate.

The Board is of opinion that the right to petition for recounts has been greatly abused. Many such recounts were petitioned for not because of any closeness in the returns, nor because there was any belief that such returns were inaccurate, but in some cases from other motives. The conditions precedent of such recounts, viz: — that the petitioners have reason to believe, and do believe, that the records or copies of records made by the election officers are erroneous, specifying wherein they deem them to be in error, and they believe that a recount of the ballots cast will affect the election of one or more candidates voted for at such election, specifying the candidates, have become a mere matter of form. Moreover, candidates lose sight of the fact that in the counting of votes in each precinct, each election officer in so canvassing and counting the votes is under the inspection of an election officer of a different political party. We recommend therefore that petitions for recounts, instead of being signed by ten voters in each ward, should be signed by at least fifty and by them in person.

JURORS.

In accordance with chapter 176 of the Revised Laws the Board has prepared the list of inhabitants of Boston qualified to serve as jurors. This list has been prepared from the voting list of Boston. The persons selected come from each ward in the city and belong to all honorable callings. The selection of this list is one of the most important duties of this department, and has been given careful attention.

QUARTERS.

The quarters of this department were entirely inadequate to carry on its increasing work. For several years the Board has recommended that its quarters be enlarged and remodelled to meet the present exigency. This year, by instruction of the Mayor, the quarters were remodelled under the supervision of the Public Buildings Department. In addition to these changes, and in order to accommodate the primary ballots and returns, an additional vault was built at the expense of this department.

BOSTON BALLOT LAW COMMISSION.

The Board, sitting with Chief Justice Brown of the Municipal Court, as the Boston Ballot Law Commission, passed upon four nomination papers, declaring three invalid and one not filed in the office of the Board of Election Commissioners. The Board also heard an objection to placing the name of a candidate upon the ballot at the city election, and overruled the objection.
